Group 6 Referees Association - Code of Conduct

All members of the Group 6 Referees Association are bound to this Code of Conduct and to any other codes of conduct endorsed through the CRLRA.

1. A referee must not physically or verbally attack or address a player, coach, club official, league official or association member in insulting terms or act in a provocative manner towards a player, coach, club official, league official or association member.
2. A referee must not, while representing the association use crude or abusive language or engage in conduct detrimental to the spirit or image of the game or the association.
3. A referee, whilst attending any activity of the association, Group 6 Rugby League or Rugby League in general, must at all times act, dress and behave in a manner befitting a member of the association.
4. A referee shall not, without first obtaining the approval of the association, through the secretary, write a column for any media relating to an issue regarding refereeing or matters affecting Group Rugby League Referees Association.
5. A referee shall not at any time make any comment, in any public forum, detrimental to the interests, welfare or image of the association, Group 6 Rugby League or Rugby League in general.
6. A referee shall not enter into any individual sponsorship agreement that conflicts with the spirit or substance of the sponsorship of the association. Any individual sponsorship agreement must be approved by the Executive Committee prior to its execution.
7. A referee shall not gamble on the result of a match under the jurisdiction of the Group 6 Rugby League.
8. A member holding an elected office in the association shall fulfil all reasonable duties associated with that office.
9. Where the association receives a written report of any alleged breach of this Code of Conduct, the member(s) concerned shall be dealt with under the terms in Part 6 – Disciplinary Procedures section of this constitution.
